I have kept the faith."

3rd Annual Max Silver Fun Run!

GOT MAX? Max Silver was the kid who maxed out on life.....He loved his family, his friends and having fun! He packed more into 18 years than many do in 80...Max lived life to the full!

Max loved to run....and so many loved to run with him! He lettered 4 years on the CMHS Cross Country Team. He was captain of the team his Senior year. He continued running even after being diagnosed with arthritis. He ran through his pain. This was one strong young man. It is only appropriate that we honor him with a race!

Max LOVED to swim. He spent countless days at the Little Dipper Pool where he learned to swim and became a lifeguard at age 15. Many a story has been told about all the laughter that was shared with Max during those years. He helped create an environment of fun and in a way only Max could create - excitement at the pool.

Max loved to write. During his short time at Fort Lewis, he captured the attention of his poetry professor. She shared that Max was one of the most gifted students she had seen come through the school in many years. He had fostered his God given gift.

"A remarkably talented poet, Max Silver combined a compassionate heart with a magician's ability with words and song and images. Profound, whimsical, caring, Max was a pleasure to work with."
~Pam Uschuk, mentor and Professor, Ft Lewis College

Proceeds from this race honor the memory of our Max...with amazing opportunities for other young writers to hone their craft at Fort Lewis College and for kids to max out their fun at the Little Dipper Pool.

Honor him this day by maxing out your fun meter!
